Roundtable discussions, lectures and debates in the Women in Black premises - "Wednesdays at WiB"

The practice of regular discussion circles, lectures and joint reflections on important social and political issues in the country and the world, book promotions, film screenings, etc. During 2021, 40 events were organized in which 650 people participated. It has also not only continued, but also expanded the practice of thematic cycles, of which we list: Feminist approach to health - with a focus on joint reflection on the consequences of the pandemic; "They Dared: About Famous Women" - deliberations, presentations, screenings of documentaries and feature films about famous women throughout history that have left their mark on art, literature, science; Reading roundtables - joint reading and commenting on political essays, literary works - from the history of the feminist movement, feminist engagement in literature, art and philosophy, etc.; Anti-militarism - non-violence - anti-fascism - civil disobedience, etc. - workshops and lectures; International politics - challenges, dilemmas, controversies ... - about current crises in the region and beyond, including activists from the International WiB Network (via Zoom), as well as experts on certain issues, etc.

Mutual support - we participated in the activities of related civil society organizations (lectures, debates, press conferences, book promotions in Belgrade, Novi Pazar, Novi Sad, Kruševac, etc.

Solidarity is our strength - with members of endangered and disenfranchised minority communities (social-class, ethnic-racial, sexual), citizens whose human rights (labor, educational, cultural) are threatened.

I Solidarity with War Refugees from the Middle East - Women in Black began in 2013 when we organized solidarity actions against racist attacks that culminated in late 2013. During 2021 we organized:

Direct actions - solidarity assistance in the field has several segments and includes:

Uzajamna podrška – učestvovala smo u aktivnostima srodnih organizacija civilnog društva (predavanja, debate, konferencije za štampu, promocije knjiga u Beogradu, Novom Pazaru, Novom Sadu, Kruševcu itd.

Solidarnost je naša snaga - sa pripadnicama/ima ugroženih i obespravljenih manjinskih zajednica (socijalno-klasnih, etničko-rasnih, seksualnih), građanima/nkama čija su ljudska prava (radna, obrazovna, kulturna), ugrožena.

I Solidarnost sa ratnim izbeglicama sa Bliskog istoka - Žene u crnom su započele 2013. kada smo organizovale solidarne akcije protiv rasističkih napada koji su kulminirali krajem 2013. godine. Tokom 2021. organizovale smo:

Direktne akcije - solidarna pomoć na terenu ima više segmenata i obuhvata:

- Pljevlja, Montenegro (on the border between Montenegro and Bosnia and Herzegovina) - visits to the Bona Fide Open Center (WiB Network) which has been organizing assistance and support to refugees since 2017 and so far, thousands of refugees and migrants from the Middle East have passed through this center, where they are provided with humanitarian aid and solidarity support. During 2020, WiB activists visited Pljevlja (2) times (March 16-19 and October 25), providing humanitarian aid and solidarity support to Bona Fide in working with refugees.
- - Tuzla, Bosnia and Herzegovina - refugees from the Middle East, but also from North Africa, began arriving in June 2018 in this city from the direction of Serbia and Montenegro, as a 'transit' place to Croatia. During 2020, Ramiz Berbić, a WiB Network activist from Tuzla, organized, on behalf of WiB, humanitarian aid and solidarity with refugees in Tuzla: April 1, 10 and 20.

II Solidarity with the Milivojević family from Lučani – monitoring of the trial in Ivanjica: visits to Ivanjica, and monitoring of the trial in the proceedings launched by the Milivojević family

(due to the death of their son in the weapons factory in Lučani, July 14, 2017). WiB has been continuously monitoring the trial since November 2019, and six hearings were held during 2021 (6): March 15, May 5, July 1, September 2, October 18 and December 1. Trials were accompanied by constant obstruction, and often delayed due to the pandemic.

III Solidarity with the journalists – we monitored two trials in the courts in Belgrade - a total of 6 hearings:

The trial for the murder of journalist Slavko Ćuruvija - Slavko Ćuruvija, owner and editor-in-chief of the daily "Dnevni Telegraph", was killed on April 11, 1999. As part of the trial of four former members of the State Security Department in 2021, two hearings were held: on October 25 and December 2, the Belgrade High Court sentenced four defendants - sentenced to 100 years in prison for participating in the murder of journalist Slavko Ćuruvija – the sentences are identical as in the first instance proceedings.

The trial for setting fire to the house of journalist Milan Jovanović - journalist (portal Zig info) is on December 12, 2018. year, a fire broke out in which his house burned down. Former President of the Municipality of Grocka, Dragoljub Simonović, is accused of inciting the burning of a journalist's house. The trial began in April 2019. During 2021, four (4) hearings were held: on February 1, 11 and 23, and on December 24, 2021, the Belgrade Court of Appeals overturned the conviction for setting fire to the house of journalist Milan Jovanović, returning the case to the Second Basic Court in Belgrade for retrial.

These trials are accompanied by constant obstructions, and due to the pandemic, they are constantly being postponed.

IV Solidarity with the activists of the Corona virus pandemic

Since the beginning of the Covid-19 pandemic, we have established various forms of mutual support and solidarity within the WiB Network, of which we list the following:

Solidarity support to the activists of the WiB Network - the practice of distributing humanitarian aid to the most socially endangered activists (modest in scale, in accordance with the possibilities) has continued.

V Solidarity assistance to Vietnamese workers in Zrenjanin / Vojvodina - employed in the construction of the Chinese tire factory Linglong in Zrenjanin, exposed to brutal exploitation. WiB joined the actions of solidarity aid to Vietnamese workers organized by the Social Center October from Belgrade (humanitarian aid in clothing and food), and on December 10, several NGO groups, with the participation of WiB activists, visited workers in Zrenjanin, organized a rally in support rebellious workers.

Publishing activity – in the course of 2020, we issued nine (9) publications:

These, as well as smaller reports, but not listed, were made on the basis of hundreds of pages of transcripts. Of course, there are no 'mandatory' project reports!

- Press releases, appeals - 37 (dealing with the past - responsibility for war crimes, violence against women, against war, against repression of political dissidents; against refugees, etc.).

Recognition of Women in Black by the Festival of Public History for a responsible attitude towards the past and contribution to the culture of peace of the Center for Applied History). The explanation at the award ceremony on June 12, 2021 states, among other things: "On 9th October 1991, they took to the streets of Belgrade for the first time to protest against the war, nationalism and violence that was mounting in Yugoslavia. (...) Their actions, courage and perseverance make them an indispensable part of history - those brighter sides of history in the dark period of the last 30 years. That is why today, in a symbolic way, with this modest recognition, we want to pay tribute to these brave women. "
